Moondog Digital Acquires New York City-Based Competitor HungryPod

Indianapolis, IN – May 7, 2008 – Moondog Digital has announced they will be purchasing competitor HungryPod of New York, New York. “HungryPod’s customer base expects a high-quality, no hassle transition to the digital life and that’s the exact ideal Moondog Digital subscribes to”, says Craig Kelker, President of Moondog Digital. “The combination of the two organizations will be quite simple as our core beliefs and competencies are nearly identical.”

HungryPod’s full-service conversion offerings will be handled by Moondog’s Indiana processing center. “By leveraging the size and expertise of Moondog Digital, HungryPod customers can expect even greater service”, said Catherine Keane, HungryPod’s Founder.
